

WHAT EDUCATORS ARE SAYING ABOUT T.C. ROEKLE

Keynote Presentations

Your presentation was overwhelming positive blend of information and motivation. Comments such as “stimulating, “thought-provoking” and “fun,” were typical of the enthusiastic responses by our principals, central office administrators, and teachers.”

Gary Doyle, Superintendent
Bloomfield Hills Schools

“Your dynamic presentation was so appropriate for today’s educational leaders, covering the instructional and business aspects of a large school system. The research you shared and your vast experiences as an educational leader will certainly challenge our thinking and planning.”

Kathleen Barca, Executive Director of Special Projects
Kenosha Unified School District No. 1

“Your keynote remarks were intriguing, challenging, and dynamic. You gave us the motivation to continue talking about what we can do to make school a practical, useful, exciting experience for our students and our staff.”

Nancy Campbell, Assistant Superintendent
Berkeley School District

“T.C. is an energetic and dynamic presenter whose passion for raising student achievement through visionary thinking and strategic planning is contagious.”

Coni Gray, Principal
Lincoln Elementary School

"Thank you for jump starting our Buckeye On-Line School for Success Two Day Conference. You were exactly what we needed. Our staff, teachers, and board members will always remember your motivational and inspiring words."

Randy Calhoun, Director
Buckeye On-Line School for Success

“You did a beautiful job of framing the new challenges for teachers in your opening presentation, yet provided us with powerful personal tools and professional strategies to meet these challenges. I had a great day.”

Michael Gary, Social Studies Teacher
Lahser High School

“Your keynote presentation to our career-technical educators was "right on". You positively identified the competencies of successful 21st century learners, and the creative reform efforts we will need to address the demands of our students. Your entertaining, yet thought provoking, message laid a strong foundation for our Curriculum Academy.”

Karen Winters, Director of Professional Development
Career Focused Education, Oakland Schools
